VLDC/Economic Development Update

Kathy updated the VLDC Board with the planning of the Spooktacular Victor: Adult Trick or Treat event. The reason for this event is to get people into the businesses and have some of the new people discover what Victor has in the Village of Victor. There will be 19 business stops for people to go in and have samples of local wineries, breweries, distilleries and food. A new thing for this event will be a photobooth because there was one for the Jingle Mingle event last year and all the attendees enjoyed it. They have also enhanced the Costume Contest experience for the attendees. A few people in the planning and building department are helping them with decorations and set up for the costume contest in the Main Meeting room at Town Hall. Kathy and Gina were looking for volunteers for the two registration stations at the event. Parks and Recreation will be doing a kids Halloween event, Monster Mash, that Saturday as well.

Aimee Cain who organized Hometown Day is talking to Kathy about possibly combining it with Climb Aboard Victor or moving it to another month because when it was back to back with Climb Aboard Victor, the vendors struggled to decide which event to participate in.

Kathy informed the Board that the Village Code Enforcement Officer, Todd Smith, will be leaving the Village position due to a new opportunity that was presented to him.

A new restaurant, The Elephant, will be coming to the Village and will be taking over the El Basha building. This restaurant cuisine will be Thai and it will be their second location. Their first location is in Geneva. Another new business in town will be Crumbl Cookies which will be in Walmart Plaza area and it will be next to Original Steve's Diner.
